

Bringing PPD

Into The Light:

Decreasing stigma, supporting families and implementing policy change in Massachusetts.

Hosted by

Senator Joan Lovely, Representative Ellen Story,
and Senator Bruce Tarr

Monday, June 29, 2015
State House · Great Hall
12:00pm – 3:00pm

Please join us to learn about how Postpartum Depression affects your community and the resources available for your families.

•

Speaking program begins at 12:30pm

Featuring:

Claudia M. Gold, MD – Pediatrician · Director, Early Childhood Social Emotional Health Program, Newton Wellesley Hospital · Author Keeping Your Child in Mind, and the forthcoming Listening to Parents and Children: Protecting Space and Time for Growth, Healing and Resilience

Jamie Zahlaway Belsito – PPD “Survivor”

Dr. Nancy Byatt - Medical Director, MCPAP for Moms

Liz Friedman – Founder, MotherWoman

Divya Kumar – Postpartum Doula at Southern Jamaica Plain Health Center

With Lieutenant Governor Karyn Polito

Senator Joan Lovely, Senator Bruce Tarr, and Representative Ellen Story will offer brief remarks.